Emmanuel Mercé

DEPARTMENT MANAGER

EMMANUEL MERCÉ STUDIED HISTORY AND Art History in Paris. A whisky connoisseur and lover, at the age of 25 he launched on an epic journey of the finest distilleries in Scotland. Fate had him knock on the door of Christie's Wine Department; a fortunate coincidence since it led him to meet with Michael Ganne with whom he was to work at Baghera ten years later.

WITHIN THE WINE DEPARTMENT AT Christie's, having graduated from WSET, the Wine & Spirit Education Trust, Emmanuel organised auctions in Paris and Geneva and was involved in several projects for the United States as well as China. He particularly enjoys supervising charity auctions which he believes fully embody the generosity and sharing which are at the heart and soul of wine.

Michael Ganne

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

MICHAEL GANNE IS ORIGINALLY FROM THE Médoc region of Bordeaux and naturally chose to dedicate himself to the wine business. Yet his unswerving taste for novelty spans beyond the great Bordeaux wines. A graduate of the International Vine and Wine Office with a Master of Wine Management, Michael has visited more than twenty-four countries and met with the most influential people in the business.

WE OWE MICHAEL SOME OF THE MOST glamorous world records when he was Head of Continental Europe for the Wine Department at Christie's, such as the most expensive Bordeaux Cheval Blanc 1947 or a Burgundy Romanée Conti 1945.

STRONG PROMOTER OF THE GREAT VINTAGE bottles he unearths and relentlessly looking for new perspectives, Michael became Executive Director of Baghera in 2015.

Julie Carpentier

WINE STRATEGY ADVISOR

JULIE CARPENTIER'S PAST IS DEEPLY rooted to the Loire valley. These regional origins may very well have given her the desire to take the plunge and work in wineries and vineyards. Yet it may simply have been the encounter with her husband-to-be, an accomplished winemaker... In a former life, Julie studied Art and Archaeology at the École du Louvre before joining Christie's Wine Department where she dedicated her expertise to wines and spirits.

A GRADUATE FROM WSET ALSO, JULIE HAS shown a remarkable understanding of native varietals together with an overall taste for exceptional and unique products. Thus, when Michael asked her to join Baghera, she did not hesitate to be part of the venture as Wine Strategy Advisor within the team.

NUITS-SAINTE-GEORGES

Foreword

IT SURE HAS BEEN A BLESSED YEAR 2015... PARTICULARLY FOR THE Burgundy region! The global reach of Burgundy's wines has never been so blatant, its Climats are finally recognized as a UNESCO World Heritage Site and this vintage looks most promising.

OVER MY NUMEROUS VISITS I ALWAYS ENJOY A NICE CHAT WITH local domain owners even though they happen to be the producers of the finest and most sought after wines on the market... The Burgundy region is developing in a smooth and natural manner that doesn't spoil the authentic, peaceful and welcoming character of its beauty.

BAGHERA'S INAUGURAL AUCTION IS THEREFORE OUR GENUINE IDEA of paying a tribute to the wines of Burgundy as well as to these men and women who produce them each year.

AS A TOKEN OF OUR RESPECT, EACH BOTTLE HAS BEEN CHECKED and appraised with utmost care and our teams untiringly photographed all of them in order to offer you the most inspiring catalogue.

BY THE SAME TOKEN, WE HAVE DECIDED NOT TO RATE THE WINES. I fully abide by Henri Jayer's statement: "These ratings to a hundredth of a point are absurd and I wish someone could tell me why you give a wine 89 and 90 to another. The difference is so insignificant that even the finest palate could not tell! Winemakers should help acquire taste, not journalists!"

INAUGURAL AUCTION

AS FAR AS WE ARE CONCERNED, WE TRUST YOUR TASTING BUDS AND our team will be happy to have you share your thoughts on the quality of the wines.

WE HAVE SELECTED SOME EXCEPTIONAL BURGUNDY WINES FOR THIS auction, although amateurs will be pleased to enjoy our collection of outstanding whiskies with rare and exclusive bottles from Scotland and Japan.

AT Baghera WE DEDICATE OUR TIME TO OUR COMMON PASSION FOR wines and spirits and, just like Dionysus riding his panther, we will be happy to ride with you along the arduous path of wine knowledge. Our main goal is to help our customers make the best choices along with maintaining the best relations with all players of this particular market where pleasure and art de vivre are the key words.

I PARTICULARLY WOULD LIKE TO THANK OUR FIRST WINESSELLERS who have honoured us with their trust. I also want to thank our team who is the backbone of our project. First of all, I would particularly like to thank Julie and Emmanuel who have believed in this project right from the start. Without their professionalism and experience during auctions, this catalogue would never have seen the light of day. Last but not least, I wish to thank our production team who worked tirelessly, as well as staff members, whose precious help was most appreciated in the handling of all these rare and exclusives bottles.

OUR CATALOGUE WAS THOUGHT OUT FOR LOVERS OF FINE THINGS. Let's share our common passion and curiosity. Let's unearth together exquisite bottles that will have us stay up late at night, musing as good friends!

WITH THIS DESIRE AT HEART, I WILL BE HAPPY TO WELCOME YOU in the brand new premises of the Maison FERT in Geneva that will exceptionally open its doors on a Sunday for our exclusive auction, where conviviality will be Baghera's hallmark.

YOURS SINCERELY,

Michael Ganne

Executive Director

* THE EXCEPTIONAL NATURE OF THIS HENRI JAYER WINE SELECTION LEADS US TO STRENGTHEN OUR WINE TRACEABILITY PROCESS. ALL HENRI JAYER BOTTLES IN THIS CATALOGUE ARE SECURED WITH THE PROOFTAG® PROTECTION SYSTEM SO AS TO GUARANTEE THE QUALITY AS WELL AS IDENTIFY THE WINES OFFERED AT AUCTION.

THE SEALS, WHICH WERE IMPRINTED SHORTLY AFTER THESE PHOTOGRAPHS WERE TAKEN, GIVE AN INDICATION OF THE CLIMATS AND THE VINTAGE. THIS ESSENTIAL SECURITY FEATURE IS AN ADDITIONAL ASSURANCE AS TO THE QUALITY OF THESE OUTSTANDING BOTTLES.

Hommage à Henri Jayer

THANK YOU SIR HENRI

PROPOSING HENRI JAYER WINES IS ALWAYS AN EMOTIONAL moment for the world's major wine collectors and this time again should be the case with our exclusive selection of wines and vintages for Baghera's inaugural auction. Our catalogue ranges from 12-bottle lots to 1-bottle lots so don't miss out on these most valuable and rare high-quality Burgundy vintages...

IN FEBRUARY 2012 I WAS GIVEN THE OPPORTUNITY TO ORGANISE in Hong Kong what was to be the largest Henri Jayer wine auction; on this occasion I reviewed more than 800 bottles and got to taste a large number of Jayer's wines. I must say that I hardly found a purer form of Pinot Noir elsewhere. Such quality and marked freshness of fruit as any amateur would seek. This is simply excellence as a result of a new way of understanding the vine.

HENRI JAYER NEEDS NO INTRODUCTION TO AMATEURS OF exceptional wines and as he puts it himself: "I always thought that vinification was a philosophical rather than scientific matter, that you need a great sensibility, which you should constantly cultivate, perhaps a sixth sense, to listen to more than just technical advice! I don't know who I got that from!".

I SHALL LEAVE THE FINAL WORD TO HENRI JAYER: "When the vintage is good, wine deserves to be preserved so that we can pass on a few bottles to our descendants".

THANK YOU FOR EVERYTHING SIR HENRI... UNTIL WE MEET again (and see you soon in spirit so to speak), around one of your exceptional bottles.

AWAKENING EMOTIONS

I PARTICULARLY LIKE THIS QUOTE FROM LOUIS PASTEUR, THE father of modern oenology, who once wrote : “There is more philosophy in a bottle of wine than in all the books of the world.” And what greater vineyard than the timeless region of Burgundy that recently joined the World Heritage, with its fantastic wines and mosaic of Climats, could better illustrate such universal philosophy, such art de vivre.

DRIVEN BY THE RECENT RECOGNITION OF BURGUNDY AND IN a spirit of celebration, we have carefully selected, for this inaugural auction, nearly five hundred and fifty lots of high-end quality Burgundy wines, from the most famous estates in Côte d’Or, the fruit of age-old traditions and representative of the diversity of Burgundy’s Climats.

THE BOTTLES FROM THIS SELECTION ONLY TRAVELED A couple of hours with utmost care, from the heart of Burgundy to the nearby town of Geneva, in the best of conditions – as should be expected with all exceptional wines – with exclusive temperature-controlled professional shipment. In the same spirit of service and respect for these fine wines, we store all our bottles in a dedicated cellar that guarantees a perfect temperature and level of humidity, as well as the highest security.

FURTHER ALONG THESE PAGES, YOU WILL DISCOVER OUR SELECTION of no less than fifty-five prime domaines whose savoir-faire and wine diversity offer the full range of emotions that only Burgundy is able to awake.

AS FAR AS I AM CONCERNED, IF I WERE TO PICK FIVE GREAT wines within the list for a memorable evening with friends, I guess I would go for the following:

A MAGNUM OF MEURSAULT 1^{ER} CRU LES PERRIÈRES 1989 (Domaine Coche-Dury) for its striking minerality and tension; a bottle of Corton-Charlemagne 2009 (Domaine Leroy) for its unique delicacy and elegance; a bottle of La Romanée 2012 (Monopole Liger-Belair) with vibrant and intense fruit like no other; a bottle of La Tâche 2010 (Monopole Domaine de la Romanée-Conti) for its absolute firmness and mastery of tannins; and finally a bottle of Musigny 1978 (Domaine Georges Roumier) for its abundance of aromas and dazzling floral notes. ... Because “No possession is gratifying without a companion.” (Seneca)

Climats

"RESPECTFULLY YOURS"

AS A FERVENT DEFENDER OF THE BURGUNDY VINEYARDS' Climats, the Baghera team warmly welcomes their inscription on the UNESCO World Heritage list. This unique man-shaped environment has been a cultural site for two millennia. One thousand two hundred and forty seven Climats deeply impregnated with history... Each with its own particular flavour and rank in the hierarchy of appellations.

MOST FAMOUS NAMES ORIGINATE FROM THIS MOSAIC OF Climats such as "Romanée" evoking an old Roman road nearby, "Perrières" referring to former quarry sites and literally meaning stony ground, "Montrachet", bare mountain referring to the lack of vegetation on the top of the hill, and so many more...

THE TERM Climats IS SPECIFIC TO BURGUNDY. IT IS NOT USED to describe weather conditions, but refers to terroirs. The word first appeared in written texts during the 16th century, indicating plots of vines, carefully and precisely marked out long before.

ALL THE CLIMATS EXTEND OVER A NARROW RIBBON OF LAND which runs from Dijon to Santenay, shaping the landscape like a mosaic. Nowhere else in the world has the same intricate relationship between wine and its original soil been taken to such refined standards as in Burgundy. The result is an extremely fragmented vineyard system and landscapes forming an unique economic and cultural ensemble.

Whiskies & Other Spirits

THE SOUL OF THE SOIL

ALTHOUGH THE BOUNDARIES TEND TO HAVE BEEN BLURRED lately, Southern Europe used to be out-and-out dedicated to growing vine while the Northern and Eastern parts mainly grew grain. Whereas the ancient Mediterranean world is commonly known for having developed the various techniques of wine making, it appears today that it might have been the Phoenicians who introduced the principle of distillation – a capital invention for all amateurs of spirits – at a time when most of Europe was mainly turned towards beer. The process was introduced: changing beer into liquid gold. Whisky was born! *

THIS IS NO CASE FOR A FEUD BETWEEN FERMENTATION AND distillation fans of course; in both cases the result is none other than the origination of the liquid soul, the intoxicating essence of nature expressed through the work of man. A taste of wine like a taste of whisky is a taste of the soul of a country.

THE PROCESS OF DISTILLING WHISKY IS NO DOUBT AKIN TO alchemy. Indeed, come into play water, wind, rocks, wood and metal; fire, mountains and fields of vegetable gold, the cauldron and the potstill, a gigantic athanor where all these elements liberate a beverage with a crystal clear name: uisge beatha, eau-de-vie, water of life. As true lovers of the vine we do indeed appreciate the numerous common facets of both worlds and the beautiful harsh labour of the whisky makers. On the occasion of this inaugural auction, we wanted to offer a small yet very carefully selected collection of the best whiskies, as a tribute to their art. Hence did we not only select a batch of great Scottish brands but we are proud to offer you a range of outstanding bottles from Japan, a country with a fine taste for whisky and in quest for excellence. This auction is also a tribute to collectors as well as importers, both emblematic players in this field.

HANYU COLLECTION

The Ishiro's Malt Cards are emblematic in more than one way, as it tells a story of passion, inheritance and conviction, but also of quality.

This is the story of the great work of Isouji Akuto, heir to a tradition of more than three centuries in the field of sake, who tried to initiate single malt in the 1940's in the way the Scots did it, in a country where, as elsewhere, blended scotch dominated the market.

It is also the fervent story of Ishiro Akuto's resolve – Isouji's grandson – who rekindled the family business, after he conquered back his unfortunate ancestor's stocks, and turned it into a successful story, many times prized in the world of whisky. In addition to the 52 cards and the 2 Jokers, this batch comes with the secondary bottling of 4 supplementary cards (Queen of Hearts, King of Clubs, King of Diamonds and Ace of Spades) making a complete set of 58 bottles, an unprecedented event: if the 54 cards have rarely been seen at auctions, the complete collection has never been offered before.

MOON IMPORT

A peculiarity when it comes to whiskies is that distilleries are not the only players in the quality and value of the whisky being brewed; bottlers and importers play a major role too.

Among these is a firm that stands out with their exclusive selections and... illustrated labels: the Italian Moon Import collection is unique in design and novelty. Not only does it offer a range of very rare and outstanding whiskies but it also proposes most appealing and beautifully illustrated labels, reminding us of Victorian Encyclopaedia.

The Moon-Import whiskies are exotic treasures revealed to all, just like the natural wonders of a world teeming with marvels displayed in Natural History Museums. Follow us into this fantastic cabinet of curiosities...

INSPECTION CRITERIA

DESCRIPTION

Baghera indicates conditions of the lots according to four criteria. Each criterion is introduced by a symbol, as follows :

-  — corks and capsules' condition
-  — bin-soiled labels
-  — damaged labels
-  — levels, ullages
-  — other comments may be indicated by an additional notice

Even with the best of care, labels may be stained or damaged because wines are stored in damp conditions. Such storage conditions are beneficial to the preservation of the wines. It is our duty to catalogue and report on wines as accurately as possible at the time of going to press. High resolution photographs are available upon request. The actual condition of the wine within the bottle is not necessarily linked to its outward appearance. You are strongly advised to examine any lot you are interested in before the sale to form your own opinion (or have it examined on your behalf).

CORKS AND ULLAGES

Ullage refers to the space between the base of the cork and the wine itself.

Acceptable ullage levels tend to increase with age. When speaking of Burgundy wines, commonly acceptable levels are as follows:

- Under 15 years old - less than 4cms
- 15 to 30 years old - up to 5cms
- Over 30 years old - up to 6cms

It should be noted that ullages may change between publication of the catalogue and the sale. This may be caused by the ageing of the cork or by a change in the temperature of the storage conditions or the shipment of the wine. We will only accept responsibility for descriptions of conditions at the time of print of this catalogue and cannot accept responsibility for any loss resulting from failure of corks either before or after this point.

PARCELS

Strictly identical lots (same designation and vintage, same producer, quantity and format, same estimates and conditions) are regarded as part of a parcel.

The successful bidder on a lot in a parcel has the possibility to purchase each of the remaining unsold lots in this parcel at the same price, at the time of the bidding.

Note that, in this catalog, a parcel notice indicates all the numbers of its constitutive lots on its heading line.

CAUTIONARY NOTES

- Descriptions and estimates in this catalogue may be amended at our own discretion. Information is given orally or in writing, before or during the sale.
- Note that some Burgundian producers tend to over-fill their bottles and a small quantity of wine may be trapped between the capsule and the cork and seep. This should not be confused with ullage (ullage is a natural occurrence in older wines, which may be accelerated due to poor provenance).
- Although we try to indicate if a lot of wines comes from different importers, this detail may be overlooked during inspection. However, having different importers is not a defect or grounds for returning a lot.
- On request of our sellers, the serial numbers on the bottles may have been erased on the photographs in this catalogue.

FORMATS IN THIS SALE

- Half-bottle : 37,5 cl.
- Bottle : 75 cl. unless indicated otherwise.

For example : whiskies may be filled at 70 or 72 cl.

- Magnum : 150 cl.
- Jeroboam : 300 cl.
- Methuselah : 600 cl.

These conditions of sale govern the contractual relations between Baghera Wines Auction & Trading SA (“Baghera Wines”), the seller whose details are indicated in the Sales Commission document (“Seller”), any participant in the auction or traded or over-the-counter, as well as any bidder and the highest bidder, excluding contractual relations between Baghera Wines and the Seller.

In case of conflict between these conditions of purchase and the terms and conditions of sale, the general terms and conditions of sale shall prevail. In the event of conflict between the English and French versions of these purchase conditions, the French version (available on bagherawines.com) shall prevail. These purchase conditions can be modified at any time, in writing or orally during the sale. By participating in any capacity whatsoever in an auction or a private sale organized by Baghera Wines discretion, you agree to be bound by these conditions of purchase.

1. BUYER

The last bidder at the stroke of the gavel (the “Buyer”) wins the bid on the lot of items (the “lot”). In case of dispute between two or more bidders, the lot will immediately be relisted.

2. AUCTION PROCEDURE

The bailiff accepts the bids of those present at the sale, phone bidders as well as absentee bidders. The stroke of the gavel indicates the final bid awarding the lot to the Purchaser. The bailiff speaks out and records the name or number of the Buyer.

3. TRANSFER OF RISK AND PROPERTY

Once awarded to the Buyer, the risks and ownership of the lot pass to the Buyer.

4. ABSENTEE BIDDING

Baghera Wines can place bids on customers’ instruction, if you are unable to attend the auction in person, Baghera Wines and its employees or agents cannot be held responsible for failure in the transmission of these instructions during the auction.

In the case where two identical bidding instructions match the highest bidding, the lot will be awarded to the first bidder.

Baghera Wines reserves the right in its sole discretion, to refuse bids from a buyer’s instructions in case the information and documents submitted as proof of identity, i.e. the identity of the beneficial owner, should prove to be false, incomplete, ambiguous or inadequate.

5. TERMS OF AUCTION

The bailiff has the right at its absolute discretion to refuse any bid, to advance the bidding as it may decide, to withdraw or divide any Lot, to combine any two or more Lots. Any bid must be at least 10% higher than the previous bid. The bailiff can, however, change this percentage during the auction. The Seller as well as any person instructed by the former cannot bid on their own lots. Only Baghera Wines may bid on behalf of the Seller.

6. ESTIMATE

The estimate of each lot is based on prices reached during previous auctions for similar lots. It is subject to change and does not constitute any guarantee or indication of the actual final sale price. The estimate does not include costs such as the buyer’s commission or VAT.

7. RESERVE PRICE

The reserve price is the confidential minimum price at which the Seller agrees to sell the Lot. If the reserve price is not reached, Baghera Wines may reject the last bid and set a new starting price equal to or above the reserve price. In case no bid matches or is above the reserve price, Baghera Wines shall withdraw the lot without adjudging it to anyone. Baghera Wines, however, reserves the right to organise a private sell after the auction, in which case the price shall not be lower than the reserve price, subject to agreement by the Seller for a price below the reserve price.

8. BUYER’S PREMIUM AND PRICES

The buyer’s premium is 20% plus 8% Value added tax (VAT) on the hammer price and buyer’s premium. The total amount of the hammer price of each of lot purchased, plus the buyer’s premium, plus VAT is the final price.

This tax (VAT) is refunded to any buyer domiciled outside Switzerland if, but only if, Baghera Wines receives from such buyer an export declaration in respect of a purchased lot which has been stamped by Swiss customs.

Buyers from outside Switzerland should note that local sales taxes or use taxes may become payable upon import of items following purchase. Buyers should obtain their own advice in this regard.

9. EXCHANGE RATES

In some auctions, in order to ensure proper information for the Buyer, a currency converter is made available. The data displayed are provided for information only and Baghera Wines assumes no responsibility in this regard.

10. PRE-AUCTION VIEWING

Prospective buyers are encouraged to inspect the property at the pre-sale viewing, which can be attended at no charge by appointment only (please contact office@bagherawines.com). Bidders accept responsibility for carrying out inspections and investigations, during previewing, to satisfy themselves as to the lots in which they may be interested.

Baghera Wines may also provide condition reports. The absence of reference to the condition of a lot in the catalogue description does not imply that the lot is free from faults or imperfections.

“Wine starts its seduction with color, to surprise, to move or to disappoint us.

Wine is adventure in a bottle.

What can be found in there ? Enthusiasm, disenchantment, surprise, passion, indifference... ”
