

Bottles from the Domaine de la Romanée-Conti reach new price records at auction

Romanée-Conti Grands Crus continue to be highly acclaimed

Last Tuesday, 14th of February 2017, Baghera Wines held their second Wine o'clock of the year, exclusively dedicated to prestigious bottles from the Domaine de la Romanée-Conti. 100% of lots were sold, once again. This edition confirms the trend of the beginning of the year 2017 which showcases major Burgundies, in particular with a lot of 5 bottles of Romanée-Conti 1999 going for CHF 78'000 (lot #11).

Michael Ganne, Executive Director: " This second 100% online auction was extremely dynamic. International buyers were very active indeed, especially English and Hong Kongese collectors. Interest in the Grands Crus of Burgundy continues to grow and the wines of the Domaine de la Romanée-Conti remain highly popular with enthusiasts around the world."

About Baghera Wines, an exceptional wines consultancy

Baghera Wines was established in Geneva in 2015 by three passionate experts, who launched a specialised office exclusively dedicated to high-end wines. Michael Ganne, Julie Carpentier and Emmanuel Mercé joined forces, offering a new approach to exceptional wine auctions, placing cordiality and interaction at the very heart of the wine business.

Alongside the sales, the Baghera Wines team guides collectors in every dimension of highlighting a collection, focusing on tailor-made, professional advice. Baghera Wines holds two exceptional room auctions a year, in Geneva, as well as several online sales – the Wine o'clocks – on www.bagherawines.auction.
