SPRING 2020 CALENDAR OF THE NEXT EXCEPTIONAL WINE AUCTIONS

Baghera/wines, the Geneva auction house specialising in rare and sought-after wines, will hold its next "Wine o'clock", 100% online sale, on Tuesday April 14, 2020.

Baghera/wines expert office is looking forward to its rendezvous with collectors of great wines from around the world on its website www.bagherawines.com for an exceptional auction on Tuesday 14 April at 2 p.m. sharp.

During this Spring Wine o'clock, it will be possible to acquire bottles of the highly sought-after Domaine de la Romanée-Conti, Domaine René Engel, Domaine Armand Rousseau and Château Le Pin.

The upcoming Wine o'clocks will be held on May 12 and June 9, 2020.

Since March 2016, these online sales, organised every second Tuesday of the month, have become a must for all lovers of rare wines.

In the current situation of a global pandemic, the teams at Baghera/wines continue to offer a wide range of services connected with great wines, subject to all the precautions and sanitary measures recommended by WHO, the Federal Office for Public Health and the State of Geneva, where the offices and storage warehouses of Baghera/wines are located.

VENTE EN LIGNE 14 AVRIL 2020

This sale highlights a limited selection of European collections offering, in 125 lots, the Burgundy, Bordeaux or Rhone estates which are most in demand and prized by wine lovers.

Among the many gems offered in this April sale, we note the presence of 10 bottles of Chambertin, Clos St Jacques 2016 Domaine Armand Rousseau (lot 78, CHF 7'000 - 12'000), 1 bottle of Chambertin 1991, Domaine Leroy (lot 8, CHF 6,800 - 11,800) as well as a case of Duclot Bordeaux Prestige Collection 1995 (lot 96, CHF 6,200 - 11,200), which will delight the taste buds of their future buyers.

Wine o'clocks, great wines just a click away

The online-only Wine o'clocks by Baghera/wines take place every second Tuesday of the month, except July and August, and offer highly qualitative selection of great wines.

Since they were introduced in March 2016, more than thirty of these innovative Wine o'clocks auctions have been held by Baghera/wines. In 2019 alone achieving a turnover of CHF 2.5M, these online-only auctions are a real success with amateurs and collectors of fine wines.

For these 100% digital sales, Baghera/wines select the world's greatest wines and spirits. The Baghera/wines experts are particularly attentive to the storage conditions and the provenance of the wines which are to be put on sale. They travel on location to judge the conservation of the bottles, assess the wines and collect the lots.

The wines are then carefully presented in thematic collections.

Each "Wine o'clock" has its own title, its own universe, its own palette - a unique graphic identity is created, reflecting the collection as well as its history. Each lot is then staged and photographed with the greatest care.

Comprehensive descriptions are produced, giving all the pertinent information on the wines offered for sale. The details on the condition of the capsules, corks, labels, levels and colour are all carefully recorded in order to inform the future buyer of the actual condition of each bottle.

The auctions take place exclusively on the secure platform www.bagherawines.com.

The excitement and surprise sparked by the prospect of the countdown being interrupted at any time, combined with the pleasure and user-friendliness of the tool provides buyers with a singular and engaging experience where the first to click secures the coveted lot.

Seasoned wine lovers and internet users from anywhere in the world can acquire at the right price and with a simple click wines from among the rarest and most coveted in the world.

ABOUT BAGHERA/WINES, AN EXCEPTIONAL WINES EXPERTS' OFFICE

European leader in the auction of rare wines, Geneva-based Baghera/wines offers a new approach by placing conviviality and exchange at the heart of their events.

For almost 5 years, passionate experts Michael Ganne and Julie Carpentier, have been heading an office dedicated exclusively to rare wines that advises and accompanies collectors in all aspects of the enhancement of a collection.

In 2018-19, the historic sale of Henri Mayer's personal cellar, to this day the most important wine auction in the world ever (CHF 34.5M), followed by the unprecedented sale exclusively dedicated to the wines of the Domaine de la Romanée-Conti and then the sale of the last bottles from the Domaine René Engel have propelled Baghera/wines to the position of European leader in wine auctions.

The experienced team, working alongside the experts at Baghera/wines, offers excellent hands-on and tailor-made advice to international collectors passionate about fine & rare wines. Their expertise includes the organisation of masterclasses, the skillful selection of wines for private tastings and dinners, events combining music and wine, and soon this coming summer 2020, a private club and a boutique dedicated to fine wines within the Beau-Rivage Hotel in Geneva.
