For its 50th Wine o'clock online sale, named “LEROY STARDUST”, Baghera/wines offered 50 lots of indisputable origin, conservation and traceability including a number of great appellations such as Musigny, Richebourg and Chambertin. All the lots found buyers in exactly 25 minutes. The estate was acquired and looked after with the greatest care by their current owner, based in Switzerland. The wines in all carefully curated 50 lots from Domaine Leroy and Domaine d'Auvenay are a tribute to Madame Lalou Bize Leroy and her immense talent.

Breaking countless world records, the online Leroy Stardust sale presented 50 lots of absolutely irreproachable quality and provenance, with 100% of lots sold totalling CHF 1,645,658 / $ 1,798,737.

Madame Lalou Bize-Leroy has contributed to the legend of great Burgundy wines for over 50 years. This exceptional woman at the helm of Domaines Leroy and d'Auvenay offers both Premier and Grand Cru vintages and curates the vines on her two estates using biodynamic methods. Her approach, her pursuit of excellence and her vision never cease to arouse the admiration of lovers of great Burgundy wines, to the point that she has become an absolute reference in great wines from these terroirs.

Her work on the most magnificent Burgundy terroirs gives birth, vintage after vintage, to wines of rare elegance, intensity and refinement, strongly marked by the personality of their creator.
