Singapore, February 2, 2023 – Since 2015, Baghera/wines has continuously affirmed its status as the number one destination for fans of exceptional wines with impeccable provenance. This year, the Geneva-based auction house is heading to Singapore. On 23 February, Baghera/wines’ monthly online auction concept, Wine o’clock (WOC), will be the first active step in this process on Singaporean soil. The online sale, named “Wine o’clock Singapore #1, A unique collection of Domaine Jean-Yves Bizot wines from two European cellars”, has been specially calibrated to suit the refined tastes of Asian customers. This unique collection of wines solely from the Domaine Jean-Yves Bizot will feature 230 bottles and magnums.

domaine Jean-Yves Bizot: the ultimate in rarity and delicacy

As a reminder and to give credit where it is due to Domaine Jean-Yves Bizot, the estate cultivates 1.70 hectares of vines planted in the 1930s, as well as 25-year-old vines in Vosne-Romanée. The estate also markets wines from the Orveaux plot under the Echezeaux label, while the Treux plot produces wines marketed under the Vosne-Romanée 1^{er} Cru label. Two white wines also feature in the form of Bourgogne Blanc and Hautes Côtes de Nuits Blanc. A total annual production of about 280 bottles, including the extreme rarity of Les Réas by way of example. Since 1996, Domaine Jean-Yves Bizot vintages have unceasingly impressed enlightened wine lovers who have had the chance to taste the very scarce wines from a winemaker whose humility is as exceptional as his talent.

The production is so limited and coveted that tasting a bottle of Jean-Yves Bizot wine is thus one of the rarest experiences in the world.

Finally, to cater for its Asian clientele, Baghera/wines will be organizing a tasting on 22 February at Odette Restaurant in Singapore. For this occasion, the collectors sponsoring the sale have chosen six wines that will enable a geographical tour of the Burgundy estate's appellations, starting with an Haute-Côte de Blanc 2012 and ending with the famous Echézeaux from the extraordinary 2005 vintage.
