“PORTRAIT(S), A GALLERY OF FINE WINE COLLECTIONS”
THE NEXT SALE OF GENEVA-BASED BAGHERA/WINES
ESTIMATED BETWEEN CHF 4.4 AND 8.7 MILLION.

Sunday, December 8, 2019 from 2pm
Beau-Rivage Hotel Reception Rooms, Geneva

Lot 4: Chambertin, Clos de Bèze 2014, Domaine Armand Rousseau (1 magnum) — CHF 3' 000 – 6' 000

Baghera/wines, European leader in fine wine auctions, invites collectors and fine wine enthusiasts to bid for the 183 lots of its sale “Portrait(s), A Gallery of fine wine collections” on auction on Sunday, December 8.

“Portrait(s)” is divided into 5 collections and offers a wide variety of formats (5 imperials, 2 jeroboams, 30 double-magnums, 210 magnums, 1659 bottles and 1 half-bottle). The greatest Domaines and Châteaux of the European vineyard, such as Domaine Armand Rousseau, Domaine Henri Jay, Domaine de la Romanée-Conti, Château Mouton-Rothschild and Azienda Case Basse di Gianfranco Soldera, figure in the catalogue of this exceptional sale.

The prices of the 183 lots that will go under the hammer range from CHF 400.- (low estimate) for a vertical of 4 bottles of Don PX Toro Albala from 1987 to 1946 (lot 180) to CHF 250,000.- (low estimate) for 12 bottles of Vosne-Romanée Cros-Parantoux

1999 Domaine Henri Jay (lots 91 and 92), for a total estimated between 4.4 and 8.7 million Swiss francs (between 4 and 8 million euros).

This sale is a unique opportunity for a wide range of enthusiasts and fine wine collectors to acquire sought-after bottles.

Michael Ganne, Executive Director of Baghera/wines says: “Portrait(s) is a tribute to the various facets the world of fine wines has to offer, through the variety of its terroirs and vintages. So many characteristics reflecting the diversity of the most delightful European vineyards. Portrait(s) is also a reference to the collections that we offer in this auction: by their enlightened choices, five enthusiasts bestow a mirror image of their personality, their taste, somehow conveying a part of themselves. We will find in this sale a rich representation of the best French, but also Italian vineyards. Two rare collections of wines from Domaine de la Romanée-Conti and Henri Jay are also included in the catalogue.”

PORTRAIT(S), AN AUCTION WITH A BROAD RANGE OF PRICES

This sale is an opportunity to purchase lots valued between CHF 400.- (lot 180, a vertical of 4 bottles of Don PX Toro Albala from 1987 to 1946) and CHF 250'000.- (lots 91 and 92, Vosne-Romanée Cros-Parantoux 1999 Domaine Henri Mayer). This broad range of prices allows Baghera/wines to address a wide public, enthusiasts and seasoned collectors but also novices desirous to discover sought after wines and establish a first cellar.

Each lot has been the object of an advanced expertise by Baghera/wines, who consequently offer a selection of the best European Domaines with perfect origins.

ABOUT BAGHERA/WINES, BUREAU OF EXPERTS DEDICATED TO EXCEPTIONAL WINES

At the end of 2015, Michael Ganne, Julie Carpentier and Francesco Lee, passionate experts, chose Geneva for the founding of Baghera/wines, a bureau exclusively dedicated to rare wines. Their ambition: to offer a new approach to auctions of exceptional wines, placing warmth and sharing at the heart of their auctions.

In 2018-19, the historic sale of the personal cellar of Henri Jayet – to date the biggest wine auction ever realised in the world (CHF 34.5M), followed by an unprecedented sale exclusively dedicated to the wines of the Domaine de la Romanée-Conti and the sale of the last bottles from Domaine René Engel, have propelled Baghera/wines to the position of European leader in wine auctions.

Baghera/wines also assists collectors in all aspects of showcasing a collection, through tailor-made advice, proximity and excellence: first class organisation, meticulous selection of wines for private tastings, dinners and events associating music and wine.

In 2019 Baghera/wines opened an office in Hong Kong. At the beginning of 2020 the team will move to the Beau-Rivage Hotel in Geneva, with the opening of a boutique dedicated to fine wines and a private club.
