

RESULTS OF THE AUCTION

“PORTRAIT(S), A GALLERY OF FINE WINE COLLECTIONS”

Baghera/wines auction house has concluded its "Portrait(s), A Gallery of fine wine collections" generating a total of around CHF 5.6 million (5.1 million euros).

The sale included 183 lots divided into 5 collections where the largest European vineyards (Domaine Armand Rousseau, Domaine Henri Jayet, Domaine de la Romanée-Conti, Château Mouton-Rothschild and Azienda Case Basse di Gianfranco Soldera) were represented.

FIVE REMARKABLE LOTS FROM THE “PORTRAIT(S)” SALE

LOT 91

Vosne-Romanée Cros-Parantoux
1999
Domaine Henri Jayet
12 bottles per lot
CHF 336'000

LOT 72

Romanée-Conti
vertical 2015-1999
Domaine de la Romanée-Conti,
8 bottles per lot
CHF 174'000

LOT 25

Pétrus assortment
2015
Various large formats
CHF 168'000

LOT 56

Gianfranco Soldera, Brunello
vertical 2013-2001
45 bottles per lot
CHF 19'200

LOT 2

Chambertin, Clos de Bèze
2016
Domaine Armand Rousseau,
6 bottles per lot
CHF 16'800

Baghera/wines

“PORTRAIT(S),
A GALLERY OF FINE WINE COLLECTIONS”

MICHAEL GANNE, EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF BAGHERA/WINES:

“The Portrait(s) sale took place in a warm and lively atmosphere, with an assembly of collectors travelling to Geneva from various Swiss cantons and others from Europe and Asia. Some lots aroused a great deal of enthusiasm, attesting to the long-held appreciation of great Burgundy wines. The sale was also part of the second edition of our “Wine & music” event, with Saturday evening bringing together 300 wine-loving guests, who enjoyed the tasting of a horizontal of twelve interpretations of Clos de Vougeot 2015, accompanied by a private concert by Thomas Dutronc, adding a festive and convivial touch to the weekend.”

With this sale Baghera/wines closed the year with a turnover of CHF 10.5 million (9.6 million euros) and 93% of lots sold, confirming the Geneva auction house's position as the Swiss and European leader in fine wine auctions.

2020 promises to be an auspicious year for our auction house. The next room auction, on Sunday, March 1st at the Beau-Rivage Hotel, will present a particularly rare and prestigious collection of French wines, entrusted to Baghera/wines by an eminent collector of art and wines who wishes to remain anonymous.

The date is set for a sale that will be exceptional in every respect. It will offer from the first quarter of the year, the most coveted bottles of the vinosphere, embodiments of the passion of this exceptional collector for the great wines of Bordeaux and Burgundy.

ABOUT BAGHERA/WINES, BUREAU OF EXPERTS IN EXCEPTIONAL WINES

At the end of 2015, Michael Ganne, Julie Carpentier and Francesco Lee, passionate experts, chose to found in Geneva Baghera/wines, an office exclusively dedicated to rare wines. Their ambition: to propose a new approach to auctioning exceptional wines by placing conviviality and exchange at its heart.

In 2018-19, the historic sale of Henri Mayer's personal winery, to date the largest wine auction ever held (CHF 34.5M), followed by the unprecedented sale exclusively dedicated to wines from the Domaine de la Romanée-Conti and the last bottles from the Domaine René Engel. These events have propelled Baghera/wines to the position of European leader in wine auctions.

In addition Baghera/wines endeavour to assist their clients in all matters pertaining to their collection. They provide expert personalised advice and organisation and an astute wine selection service for private tastings or dinners. They also present special events, often combining live music and wine.

In 2019, Baghera/wines opened an office in Hong Kong. In early 2020, the team will move to the Beau-Rivage Hotel in Geneva, with the creation of a boutique dedicated to fine wines and a private club.

PRESS CONTACT

Emilie Drouin | edrouin@bagherawines.com | +41 79 687 17 44

High-definition visuals available from Baghera/wines press

For more information about Baghera/wines and the sale: www.bagherawines.com

